DIGITAL RESOURCES PT.1

eLibro

Website:

<https://www.eap.edu/sobre-la-biblioteca/>

Purpose:

eLibro is a digital library of Spanish-language eBooks, covering fields like literature, social sciences, and history. It offers tools like highlighting, note-taking, and citation, which are helpful during research.

DSPACE

Website:

<https://eap.dspace.org/home>

Purpose:

DSpace is an open-access platform that allows you to digitally storage, preserve, and share theses, dissertations, and other academic documents. In our library, it's used to store and access theses written and presented by students of EAP.

kanopy

Website:

<https://www.kanopy.com/eap/>

Purpose:

Kanopy is a movie streaming platform offering educational, documentary, and classic films across subjects like arts, humanities, and social sciences. It's great for academic use and accessible on any device for on-the-go streaming.

Each student can watch up to three (3) movies per month. For commercial movies, a permission request will be sent to the library's director, who will review and approve the petition when possible.

pressreader

Website:

<https://www.pressreader.com/catalog>

Purpose:

PressReader gives access to thousands of global newspapers and magazines, covering news, culture, and events. It supports multiple languages and offers features like translation and text-to-speech for easy reading.
